BROADWAY THEATER.

We Are King.

Mr. Eugene Weber, starring in We Are King, a comedy by Lieut. Gordon Kean, author of The Magic Melody, which is to be presented at the Broad-way theater this afternoon and evenway theater this afternoon and evening, supported Mr. Walker Whiteside three years in this one piece, and has proved himself to be a worthy successor to that talented artist. Mr.
Weber has a splendid voice, an admirable stage presence and is ably fitted for the dual role which he portrays. Some idea of the merit of the comedy may be gained from the reception which has been accorded both which has been accorded both r and company wherever it has been sented. Practically without excep-a managers wherever this attraction has been presented have insisted upo return engagements, and in every cas where it has been granted Mr. Webe and company have been received by capacity houses. This is not only gratifying to the young star, but it is evident that the theatergoing public is quick to appreciate true merit.

Charcott.

Charcott, the eminent hypnotist, will give a performance on Tuesday even-ing at the Broadway theater. Char-cott has mystified multitudes daily for years. Charcott's hypnotism is further advanced than any other hypnotist in the world. Be sure to go to the Charcott show. It is the only one of its kind. On Tuesday he will place a sub-ject under hypnotic influence on exhi-bition at 12 o'clock sharp at the Brooklyn Outfitters at 288-268 Main street. The best acts obtainable are

BREED THEATER.

Master Harry Noonan, Phenomenal Boy Soprano Soloist.

A decided treat is in store for the patrons of the Breed theater this week, as Master Harry Noonan, the favorite little singer of high class and illustrated songs, returns to the Breed for this week, singling one of the latest and greatest illustrated song hits of the day. His cencert song is one of great merit and includes some very difficult work for the voice, showing to advantage the excellent training he has received from one of the foremost vocal instructors in Boston's exclusive Back Bay.

Rehearsing for "Summer Carnival." With an entire local cast and wholly with an entire local cast and wholly under local management and direction, careful and competent rehearsals for the last six weeks have been going on for the "Summer Carnival" to be given by St. Mary's T. A. and B. society in the latter part of October, with two performances in Broadway theater. Full of original ideas, Professors Maher and Kennedy are doing unequalled work in the direction of the rehearsals. Professor Goodwin has charge of the vocal part of the carnival and those taking part are making good; about three hundred people are in the cast, which is in three acts.
